Instagram Sweepstakes Celebrates Partnership of Farm Star Living With Springer Mountain Farms

ATLANTA, GA--(Marketwired - May 1, 2014) - Farm Star Living, the nation's lifestyle brand that celebrates American farming and farmers, announces its recent partnership with Springer Mountain Farms, a family owned business that has been raising chickens for over 40 years. Springer Mountain Farms is the first poultry producer in the world to gain the endorsement of the American Humane Association under its American Humane certified program.

"We are so pleased to welcome Springer Mountain Farms to the Farm Star Living family. For over four decades Springer Mountain Farms has been raising chickens, and we are so excited to help promote the brand and its partner farm to table restaurants in the Atlanta market," says Mary Blackmon, Farm Star Living founder.

In celebration of the partnership, Farm Star Living and Springer Mountain Farms have created the "Insta" Dinner Sweepstakes. During May 1 - July 4th, visit any Springer Mountain Farms partner restaurant listed in the Atlanta farm to table restaurant finder on www.farmstarliving.com and the Farm Star Living App and Instagram your restaurant menu featuring Springer Mountain Farm chicken. The first 100 entrants will receive a Farm Star Living vintage style t-shirt and all will be entered to win a freezer full of Springer Mountain Farm chicken -- including the mini-freezer! Imagine the summer barbecue one could have with that! Not to mention, you'll look good while hosting it, too, in your Farm Star Living vintage style t-shirt.

Tag @farmstarliving.com and #springermountainfarms and automatically be entered to win! No purchase required, but a visit to your favorite participating farm to table restaurant clearly marked on Farm Star Living website is required.
